

Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging and Connecticut Community Foundation

Transportation Resource Guide for Northwestern CT

The Western CT. Area Agency on Aging, Inc., (WCAAA) and the Connecticut Community Foundation (CCF) are pleased to present this Transportation Resource Guide for Northwestern CT.

The staff have spent many hours researching and confirming information in this Directory.

We suggest you call the transportation provider if you have any questions.

Please call the WCAAA at 203-757-5449 or 800-994-9422 with corrections or comments or email info@wcaa.org or visit our website at www.wcaa.org for information about WCAAA programs and services.

Types of Transportation Services

Fixed Route Transit is standard bus service running on a set route and schedule. You ride and you pay a fare. The fare is reduced if you are elderly or disabled, but you must pay to ride. All buses in CT are accessible for people with disabilities.

ADA Paratransit serves people with disabilities, of any age. Paratransit increases regular routes options with vehicles that are sized between a bus and a car. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) requires transit agencies to provide paratransit services to people with disabilities who cannot use the fixed route bus or rail service. Paratransit service must be provided within 3/4 of a mile of a bus route or rail station, during the same hours and days, for no more than twice the regular fixed route fare. Also, paratransit rides must be provided to all eligible riders if requested any time the previous day, within an hour of the requested time. Personal care attendants ride for free when with a passenger with a disability, companions do not. To use this service you must register and prove you are disabled. Call the local provider for the application form.

Dial-a-Ride Service is offered to seniors, usually age 60+, and to people with disabilities. Once someone qualifies and registers for the program, he or she calls a dispatcher, in advance, and makes a reservation, a vehicle is sent to his or her home. The person is driven to their destination and is picked up and brought home at a set time. Some services limit destinations to medical and dental offices, others may give rides to Senior Centers or shopping centers or anywhere within the service area. There may or may not be a charge, depending on provider, and service is not refused for failure to pay the fare. To use the service you must register with your local provider and prove age or disability.

Medical Transportation Programs are variations on the Dial-a-Ride theme. They typically offer non-emergency transportation, for a patient and a caregiver or family member who accompanies the patient.

Home Care and Chore Services Providers, some agencies will provide companion assisted transportation for their clients. Please contact your local provider for information on availability and payment assistance.

Long Distance Train & Bus Options:

Other Sources of Information

www.ctrider.com, provides information and resources for Connecticut commuters.

www.infoline.org or Info line (211), lists transportation services by town, type of transportation, telephone numbers and general information.

The Kennedy Center, a non-profit rehabilitation agency, offers one-on-one travel training for those with cognitive, sensory, and physical disabilities. A trainer travels along with the person when they use the transit system and will continue to accompany the person until he or she reaches a skill and confidence level to ride without assistance. This is a free service that is available throughout most of CT. Call 1-800-300-8029 x247.

Board of Education and Services for the Blind (BESB) is a state agency that offers services for individuals who are legally blind on how to travel safely and independently. Call 1-800-842-4510.
