

2017 FINAL AWARDS - Please call WCAAA if you cannot access any of these fine services that follow.

| Program Name                                                                                                                                                 | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Towns Served                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | FFY 17 AWARD                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Almost Home Adult Day Care52 Federal RoadDanbury, CT 06810Jim Maurer                                                                             | To serve low income seniors in the greater Danbury area who are in need of ADC services.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Danbury, Bethel, Brookfield, Newtown, Sandy Hook, New Fairfield, New Milford, Bridgewater, Washington, Gaylordsville, Redding, & Ridgefield.                                                                                           | $10,000                       |
| Geer Adult Day Center83 So. Canaan RoadCanaan, CT 06018Lori Neil                                                                                 | To enhance the quality of life to our participants, families and caregivers by offering adult day care services regardless of their ability to pay.                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Barkhamsted, Canaan, Colebrook, Cornwall, Norfolk, Salisbury, Goshen, Torrington, Sharon, Winsted, Kent, Litchfield, Warren, Falls Village, Pleasant Valley & New Hartford                                                             | $9,500                        |
| CT Legal Services, Inc.Grandparents Raising Grandchildren85 Central AvenueWaterbury, CT 06722Kevin Brophy                                    | To provide grandparents with information and assistance to make informed decisions regarding the legal status of their role as caregivers for their grandchildren.                                                                                                                                                                                     | All of Northwestern CT                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | $12,000                       |
| Naugatuck YMCATime Out to Play284 Church StreetNaugatuck, CT 06770Karen Lineweber                                                            | Provide respite, child care, family activities and support for grandparents raising grandchildren                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Naugatuck, Prospect, Middlebury, Southbury, Beacon Falls & Waterbury                                                                                                                                                                   | $10,520                       |
| Hispanic Coalition of GW Inc.Senior Center & Transportation135 East Liberty StreetWaterbury, CT 06706Victor Lopez                            | Multi-purpose Senior Center activities, case management and door-to-door transportation in Waterbury.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Waterbury and neighboring towns.                                                                                                                                                                                                       | $17,000                       |
| Harwinton Senior Center209 Weingart RoadHarwinton, CT 06791Sharlene Copeland                                                                     | Provide seniors with a sense of community while encouraging and supporting their independence.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Harwinton, Litchfield, Torrington, Winsted, Washington, Pleasant Valley                                                                                                                                                                | $9,000                        |
| Naugatuck Senior Transportation229 Church StreetNaugatuck, CTLeslie Mengacci                                                                     | To fund part time drivers and dispatcher so that elderly clients may be transported to various destinations and use the mini vans to their fullest potential.                                                                                                                                                                                          | Naugatuck                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | $9,000                        |
| New Opportunities, Inc.Senior Companion Program232 North Elm StreetWaterbury, CT 06702Lesley West                                            | Provide transportation for low income senior companion volunteers to the homes of frail, homebound elders.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Waterbury, Naugatuck Wolcott, Prospect, Beacon Falls, Woodbury, Bethlehem, Thomaston, Southbury, Cheshire, Middlebury, & Watertown                                                                                                     | $5,000                        |
| Wheels Program of Greater New Milford40 Main StreetNew Milford, CT 06776Thea Gruber                                                              | Provide free transportation for seniors to their non emergency medical appointments (plan to purchase a wheelchair accessible van in Oct).                                                                                                                                                                                                             | New Milford, Roxbury, Kent & Washington Depot.                                                                                                                                                                                         | $9,000                        |
| Northwestern CT. Transit DistrictMunicipal Bldg.957 East Main StreetTorrington, CT 06790Carol Deane                                          | Provide integrated transportation service to seniors throughout Northwestern Connecticut.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 16 towns in Litchfield Hills & Northwest CT.                                                                                                                                                                                           | NW Rural) (GEER)$40,980   |
| City of TorringtonMedical Transportation ProgramSullivan Senior Center88 East Albert StreetTorrington, CT 06790Carol Tucker, Coordinator | To transport elders, ambulatory and wheelchair bound to medical appointments.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Torrington, Harwinton, and Litchfield                                                                                                                                                                                                  | $31,500                       |
| Waterbury Development Corp.Waterbury Senior Shuttle83 Bank Street 3rd FloorWaterbury, CT 06702Diane Toolan                                   | Provide on demand transportation services to seniors in Waterbury                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Waterbury                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | $28,458                       |
| Beacon Falls Senior Transportation10 Maple AvenueBeacon Falls, CT 06403Karen Wilson                                                              | To provide on demand transportation for seniors and disabled residents of Beacon Falls. (Most destinations are out of town locations)                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | From Beacon Falls to out-of-town locations.                                                                                                                                                                                            | $5,001                        |
| Geer Transportation Program99 South Canaan Road, Canaan,CT 06018Lori Neil                                                                        | To provide non emergency medical transportation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Canaan, Salisbury, Sharon, Falls Village and Cornwall                                                                                                                                                                                  | (Included in NW Rural's Grant) |
| City of TorringtonTorrington Chore Program88 East Albert StreetTorrington, CT 06790Carol Tucker                                              | Will provide housekeeping services and shopping assistance to low income, frail, at-risk elders in order for them to remain independent at home.                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Torrington, Harwinton                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | $36,783                       |
| Chore ServicePO Box 522Lakeville, CT 06039Pat Wright                                                                                             | To provide non medical help at home including cleaning, yard work, errands etc.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | North Canaan, Cornwall, Falls Village, Kent, Norfolk, Salisbury, Lakeville & Sharon                                                                                                                                                    | $59,550                       |
| New Opportunities, Inc.CNV Chore Program232 N. Elm StreetWaterbury, CT 06702Mary Kate Gill                                                   | Assists frail elders to maintain independent living by providing house cleaning, yard work and minor home repair services.                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Waterbury, Naugatuck, Prospect, Wolcott, Woodbury, Middlebury, Southbury, Thomaston, Bethlehem, Watertown, Beacon Falls.                                                                                                               | $32,631                       |
| Helping Hands Chore Service115 Spencer StreetPO Box 888Winsted, CT 06098Irene Coniole                                                        | The program is designed to help seniors live safely in their own homes. Helping Hands provide light housekeeping, laundry, cooking, errands, light yard work etc.                                                                                                                                                                                      | Winsted, New Hartford, Barkhamsted, Colebrook & Norfolk                                                                                                                                                                                | $34,327                       |
| Litchfield Hills Chore ServicePO Box 294Litchfield, CT 06759Sally Irwin                                                                          | Provide housekeeping, shopping, and light yard work.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Litchfield, Morris, Goshen, Warren, Roxbury and Washington                                                                                                                                                                             | $32,828                       |
| New Opportunities, Inc.Money Management232 North Elm StreetWaterbury, CT 06702Jean Neumann                                                   | Provide frail-at risk elders with bill paying assistance from screened, trained & bonded volunteers.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Waterbury, Wolcott, Prospect, Watertown, Naugatuck, Southbury, Cheshire, Woodbury, Middlebury, Thomaston, Bethlehem, Beacon Falls, Torrington, Winsted, Canaan, Litchfield, New Milford, Danbury, Bethel, Brookfield, Sherman, Newtown | $9,000                        |
| CAAWCEnergy Assistance65 North StreetDanbury, CT 06810                                                                                           | Provide emergency heating assistance for deliverable fuels and utilities. Assistance is provided to elderly low-income people.                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Bethel, Bridgewater, Brookfield, Canaan, Cornwall, Danbury, Falls Village, Kent, New Fairfield, New Milford, Newtown, Redding, Ridgefield, Roxbury, Salisbury, Sharon, Sherman, Warren & Washington.                                   | $9,000                        |
| NO, Inc. Energy Assistance232 North Elm StreetWaterbury, CT 06702Joanne Balaschak                                                                | Provide emergency heating assistance for deliverable fuels and utilities. Assistance is provided to elderly low-income people.                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Central Naugatuck Valley & Litchfield Hills Region                                                                                                                                                                                     | $15,000                       |
| Renewal House18 Aaron Samuels BlvdDanbury, CT 06810Janice Wiggins                                                                                | A transition housing program that moves elderly persons from homelessness to independent living.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 41 Towns in the Western CT area.                                                                                                                                                                                                       | $5,000                        |
| Family Intervention CenterProject Hope22 Chase River RoadWaterbury, CT 06704Joseph Futschik                                                  | Provide evaluation, referral and treatment sessions for people 60+ in home/office. Provide mental health workshops in several senior complexes/senior centers within the region.                                                                                                                                                                       | Western CT area.                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | $25,575                       |
| Naugatuck YMCASenior Exercise284 Church StreetNaugatuck, CT 06770Cathy Mauritz                                                               | Provide exercise, nutrition and wellness programs.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Beacon Falls, Bethlehem, Litchfield, Cheshire, Torrington, Middlebury, Naugatuck, Oakville, Prospect, Southbury, Waterbury, Watertown, Wolcott, New Milford & Woodbury                                                                 | $20,000                       |
| Waterbury YMCAWby. Senior Exercise Program136 West Main StreetWaterbury, CT 06702Paula Labonte                                               | To provide older adults with programs and services that enhance their physical and mental well-being through exercise, recreation and social interaction.                                                                                                                                                                                              | Waterbury, Watertown, Woodbury, Southbury, Middlebury, Bethlehem, Thomaston, Wolcott & Prospect                                                                                                                                        | $5,500                        |
| Connecticut Legal Services, Inc.85 Central AvenueWaterbury, CT 06722Kevin Brophy                                                                 | To assist seniors in addressing complex legal issues that impact the essentials of life. The goal is to help seniors maintain their independence and quality of life by promoting and enforcing their legal rights.                                                                                                                                    | All of Northwestern CT.                                                                                                                                                                                                                | $40,539                       |
| Independence Northwest1183 New Haven Road #4Naugatuck, CT 06770Scott Robbins                                                                     | Increase the # of elderly veterans accessing VA health care benefits through outreach and education, provide veterans and their spouses additional income through access to Soldiers, Sailors and Marine Fund benefits as well as pensions claims process. The program will allow veterans and their spouses to remain independently in the community. | WCAAA Region                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | $9,000                        |
| Newtown Senior Center14 Riverside RoadNewtown, CT 06482                                                                                              | Classes at Newtown Senior Center to improve fitness and self defense                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Newtown                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | $5,000                        |
| Prospect Senior CenterCenter StreetProspect, CT 06712                                                                                                | 6 Senior Center Art Therapy classes to promote relaxation and anti-depression activity.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Prospect, Cheshire, Wolcott, Waterbury                                                                                                                                                                                                 | $5,000                        |
| Community Health & Wellness Center469 Migson AvenueTorrington, CT 06790                                                                              | Dental care including oral assessment, cleaning, crowns, fillings                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Torrington, Winsted, New Hartford, Goshen, Litchfield, Barkhamsted                                                                                                                                                                     | $7,500                        |
| New Milford Chore40 Main StreetNew Milford, CT 06776                                                                                                 | Minor household chores for homebound/isolated seniors                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | New Milford                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | $5,000                        |
| Mt. Olive Senior Center82-100 Passwell StreetWaterbury, CT 06704                                                                                     | General senior activities at Mt. Olive Senior Center                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Waterbury                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | $5,000                        |